

[ The Washington Post ]

Montgomery

EXTRA

THURSDAY, JULY 5, 2007

PHOTOS BY SUSAN SIDORC—THE WASHINGTON POST

Baseball Under the Lights Draws Cadre of Young Fans

At Cabin John Regional Park's Shirley Povich Field on Saturday night, the Rockville Express played a doubleheader against the Bethesda Big Train in the Cal Ripken Sr. Collegiate League. Above, Rockville's striped shirts had reason to celebrate in the second game after scoring seven runs in the top of the fifth inning. At right, young fans from the District got a chance to attend through the Sierra Club's Inner City Outings program. Tracy Kyle, 11, and her friends got a signature from the Big Train's Jeff Gordon, who is playing for Bethesda while on break from the University of Wisconsin. The teams split the doubleheader.

